Diagram 5 illustrates the process of attaching the outer frame to the roof structure. The main diagram shows a rectangular frame being secured with screws. Red dashed lines indicate the screw placement. Two red boxes highlight specific areas: one shows a screw being driven into the frame, and the other shows a screw being driven into the roof structure. Two inset images provide close-up views: the left inset shows a screw being driven into a green gasket, and the right inset shows a screw being driven into the roof structure.
